

Proclamation

VON Week

May 18-23, 2026

WHEREAS The VON (Victorian Order of Nurses) for Canada is a charitable community-based health care organization that has addressed community health and social needs for 129 years; and

WHEREAS VON nurses, home support workers, community service coordinators, and many other staff and volunteers have been caring for the lives and well-being of residents of Amherst for many years; and

WHEREAS VON's nursing, health promotion, and support services make an important contribution to the health care system in Nova Scotia; and

WHEREAS VON Week is a time to recognize the vital work happening in our community, to engage in conversation, and support the VON as they fill their clients' days with meaning and hope.

BE IT RESOLVED, THEREFORE, that I, Robert Small, Mayor of Amherst, proclaim May 18-23, 2026, as VON Week in the town of Amherst.
